OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY TO THE PRESIDENT*New Delhi, the 29th May 1959*

No. 33-Pres./59.—The President is pleased to approve the award of the ASHOKA CHAKRA, CLASS III for gallantry to:—

No. 1017467 Sowar GILBERT SPEED

1 Armoured Division. (Posthumous).

(Effective date of award: 19th July 1956)

On 19th July 1956 Sowar Gilbert Speed was one of a party picnicking at the Parichha Bund on the river Betwa about 14 miles from Jhansi. Below the bund were a group of persons who were bathing in the river. One of the bathers, Shri Anand, slipped and fell into the river. Unable to swim, he was being carried away by the fast current of the river which was in flood on account of the monsoon. There were a number of persons sitting near the bank, some of them swimmers, but none of them took the risk of battling with the current to save Shri Anand.

Sowar Gilbert Speed however immediately dived into the river though fully clothed. He got hold of the drowning man but despite his skilful swimming could not bring him to the bank. He fought the treacherous current to support and hold Shri Anand's head above water and eventually managed to push him on to a rock in the middle of the river about 200 yards down-stream. Shri Anand was saved, but exhausted by his efforts against the strong current and hampered by other submerged rocks, Sowar Gilbert Speed could not himself gain a foot-hold anywhere and was swept away and drowned.

Sowar Gilbert Speed showed courage of a very high order in going to the rescue of a non-swimmer in a fast flowing and rain swollen river. His supreme sacrifice was in the best traditions of the Army.

No. 34-Pres./59.—The President is pleased to approve the award of the ASHOKA CHAKRA, CLASS III, for gallantry to:—

No. 28247 Rifleman TEK BAHADUR THAPA,

7 Assam Rifles.

(Effective date of award: 11th December 1953).

On 11th December 1953 Rifleman Tek Bahadur Thapa was a member of an Assam Rifles party detailed to cordon off the houses in Lazu village in Tirap Frontier Division, NEFA, which were in the grip of a devastating fire. He learnt that in one of the houses two small children were trapped. Although smouldering timber and bamboos were falling everywhere he rushed into the house and found the children aged 3 and 6 huddled in one corner, frightened and dazed. He gathered them in his arms and shielding them with his body from the fury of the blaze succeeded in bringing them out unscathed. Throughout the subsequent operations and salvage work he continued to display the same spirit of fearlessness and exemplary conduct in the best tradition of the Assam Rifles.

New Delhi, the 30th May 1959

No. 35-Pres./59.—The President is pleased to award the Police Medal for gallantry to the undermentioned officers of the West Bengal Police:—

Names of officers and ranks:

1. Shri Kalul Lepcha, Constable No. 695, 2nd Armed Force Battalion, West Bengal.

2. Shri Bairagi Singh Routh, Constable No. 658, 3rd Armed Police Battalion, West Bengal.

Statement of services for which the decorations have been awarded:

In the early hours of the 27th July 1957 about thirty dacoits armed with guns and other weapons raided a house in village Belbari, Police Station Goalpukur, District West Dinajpur. Some of the dacoits mounted guard outside the house and threatened to shoot anybody who dared come near. The members of the village resistance group, however, came forward to challenge the dacoits and one member of the group was injured by a bullet.

In the meantime Constable Kalul Lepcha and Constable Bairagi Singh Routh who were on patrol arrived on the scene. Having taken up positions near the house the Constables advised the villagers and members of the village resistance group to withdraw. The dacoits turned their attention to the policemen and fired at them. The Constables returned the fire. Unable to continue their raid the dacoits hastily began their retreat with the ~~booby~~ under covering fire. Though it was a dark and cloudy night the Constables gave chase and continued firing as a consequence of which the dacoits were compelled to leave the ~~booby~~ behind. On searching the area later the Constables found two dacoits dead and arrested another with a bullet injury on his knee.

Constable Kalul Lepcha and Bairagi Singh Routh displayed commendable devotion to duty and exemplary courage in attacking and pursuing this large gang of dacoits.

2. These awards are made for gallantry under rule 4(i) of the rules governing the award of the Police Medal and consequently carry with them the special allowance admissible to officers of and below the rank of Inspector of Police as provided in rule 3.
